DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-20 have been examined.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

- 2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
 - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.
- 3. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 USC 103(a) as unpatentable over Retallick(US Pat. No: 6,442,567) in view of Burchetta(US Pat. No: 6,330,551).
- 4. As per claims 1-20 Retallick teaches a negotiation protocol for an activity or service(Abstract)(Fig 4)(Fig 11)(Fig 12)(col 1 line 49-col 6 line 60). Retallick does not teach specifically dispute resolution. Burchetta teaches a dispute resolution system incorporating compromise(Abstract)(Fig 2)(Fig 3) incorporating an offer as well as counter-offers(Fig 2)(Fig 3) conducted over the Internet(col 3 line 46-col 6 line 37) which includes comparison evaluation(col 4 lines 38-41) and attribute discrimination(col 11 line 12-col 12 line 65) and established conditions(col 15 lines 32-53). It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time of the invention to combine Retallick in view of Burchetta to teach applicant's invention. The motivation to combine is to teach a negotiation protocol over the Internet incorporating compromise and counteroffers as enunciated by Burchetta(col 1 line 39-49).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

- The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112: The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the
